

A Short Introduction to Literature Research

How do I start my research?

- A few tips:
 - Find suitable subject terms/keywords!
 - Use encyclopedias etc. to find suitable terms!
→ For example: Encyclopaedia Britannica
 - Use the OPAC to find books and journals!
 - Use databases to find journal articles or book chapters!
 - Take a look at the subject terms and the bibliographies of your results! Note down your search terms.
 - Use interlibrary loan to access literature that is not available at Nuremberg libraries.
 - Feel free to contact the team of the library 😊

How do I find an article?

1. If you only know the title and author:

Fells, R., Rogers, H., Prowse, P. and Ott U. (2015) Unraveling Business Negotiations Using Practitioner Data

→ Try different literature databases, for example Web of Science or Ebsco Business Source Elite, and search with the authors name and some keywords from the title

2. If you know the journal:

Negotiation and Conflict Management Research, 8 (2) pp.119-136.

→ Check the OPAC to see whether we have access to the journal and look for the right year and issue

How can I use databases and e-books at home?

- Access via EZProxy with your my.Ohm login information
- VPN-Access via GlobalProtect (How to install VPN in English)
 - Important: Set up the VPN connection first, open your browser second!

Manuals, help and more information is provided by the Central IT!
